GENERAL ASSEMBLY
Forty-sixth session
Agenda item 20
ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS TO THE
UNITED NATIONS

SECURITY COUNCIL
Forty-seventh year

Application of Turkmenistan for admission to membership in the United Nations

Note by the Secretary-General

In accordance with rule 135 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly and rule 59 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, the Secretary-General has the honour to circulate herewith the application of Turkmenistan for admission to membership in the United Nations, contained in a letter dated 17 January 1992 from the President of Turkmenistan to the Secretary-General.

ANNEX

Letter dated 20 January 1992 from the President of Turkmenistan addressed to the Secretary-General

Turkmenistan, which I have the honour to represent, is a country with a long history that has played an important role in the development of world culture and science of which ancient Merv has justifiably been considered the centre. However, for a number of historical reasons, the Turkmenian people subsequently lost its statehood, and the restoration of statehood became the cherished dream of the Turkmenian people.

Our people acquired a great deal of experience in nation-building and achieved significant social progress when Turkmenistan was part of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. However, rigid centralization in all areas hampered the full development of democratic processes in society and civilized statehood, which was not in keeping with the demands of the times. In that connection, the Declaration on the State Sovereignty of Turkmenistan was adopted on 22 August 1990; the Declaration clearly defined the mutual relations of the Republic with the centre and the Union Republics and prospects for Turkmenistan's independent development.

The general referendum on independence held on 27 October 1991, in which 94 per cent of the population voted for the full independence of Turkmenistan, reflected once and for all the free choice of our people and once again demonstrated its unity, of which we are exceedingly proud. The results of the referendum were unanimously approved at a session of the Supreme Soviet of Turkmenistan.

Today Turkmenistan, which has great economic potential, has embarked on the path of independent development. Turkmenistan exercises full control over its entire territory and is conducting a peaceful policy based on the peace-loving traditions of the Turkmenian people and conforming to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Mr. Secretary-General, allow me, in accordance with the Declaration on the State Sovereignty of Turkmenistan of 22 August 1990, the results of the general referendum of 27 October 1991 and Turkmenistan's desire to become part of the international community, to appeal to you on behalf of the people of Turkmenistan to support the full participation of Turkmenistan in the world community of States.

I request that you consider this letter as the official application of Turkmenistan for admission to membership in the United Nations in conformity with Article 4 of the Charter of the United Nations.

Assuming that our request will be granted, Turkmenistan officially assumes, on the basis of this application, its obligations as a Member of the United Nations in accordance with the Charter - obligations that it can and wishes to fulfil.

Turkmenistan would be very grateful if you would consider this request as a matter of priority and allow the delegation of Turkmenistan to participate in the next session of the General Assembly of the United Nations.

SECURITY COUNCIL
Forty-seventh year

Letter dated 27 January 1992 from the Permanent Representative of El Salvador to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

I have the honour to transmit to you the New York Act (see annex I) and the New York Act II (see annex II) signed at United Nations Headquarters on 31 December 1991 and 13 January 1992 respectively by the Government of El Salvador and the Frente Farabundo Martí para la Liberación Nacional.

I should be grateful if you would have this note and its annexes circulated as an official document of the General Assembly, under agenda item 31, and of the Security Council.

(Signed) Ricardo G. CASTANEDA
Ambassador
Permanent Representative

ANNEX I

New York Act

The Government of El Salvador and the Frente Farabundo Martí para la Liberación Nacional (FMLN) hereby declare that they have reached definitive agreements which, combined with those previously signed at San José, Mexico City and New York, complete the negotiations on all substantive items of the Caracas Agenda and the New York "Compressed Negotiations". Their implementation will put a final end to the Salvadorian armed conflict.

An agreement has also been reached on all technical and military aspects relating to the separation of the warring parties and the cessation of the armed conflict, which includes the end of the military structure of the FMLN and the reintegration of its members, within a framework of full legality, into the civil, political and institutional life of the country.

The parties have also agreed that the cessation of the armed conflict shall take effect formally on 1 February 1992 and shall conclude on 31 October 1992.

A further meeting between the parties has been scheduled for 5 January 1992 to negotiate the timetable for implementing the agreements and the procedure for ending the military structure of the FMLN and reintegrating its members, within a framework of full legality, into the civil, political and institutional life of the country.

Such negotiations must be successfully concluded by 10 January 1992 at the latest. Otherwise, the parties undertake to accept, by 14 January 1992 at the latest, a formula for resolving outstanding issues to be proposed to them by the Secretary-General of the United Nations. The Final Peace Agreements will be signed at Mexico City on 16 January 1992.

The parties undertake to preserve the atmosphere necessary for maintaining and expanding the unilateral decisions which they have taken in order to avoid all military activity.
